

How to build passive sentences

Use forms of to be in the simple present or the simple past:

Choose one of these forms:

simple present

simple past

am

was

is

was

are

were

Add the past participle for example: The test is written by the students today. (simple present)

The test was written by the students yesterday. (simple past)