

classes 8 a, b, c

Rosa Parks – a courageous black woman in the USA

1. Now you had time to finish your vocabularies till “movement” (p 214).
Look at the pages 84 / 85 in your English book.

p 84, task 1:

Look at the pictures and try to find out, what is the story about? Write down two or three sentences:

Now read the story. If there are sentences or words you can't understand, have a look at the dictionary, pp 220 – 245.

Were your ideas (task 1) right? yes no

p 85, task 2:

Correct the mistakes and write down the correct sentences in your exercise-book, please.

p 85, task 3a:

You can get more help or more challenge on page 135.

workbook, p 50 task 7:

Write the words in the right order, please.

2. Now choose the right words, please. Cross out the wrong ones.

Rosa Parks was a rich / white / black woman, who lived in Montgomery, Alabama. Her life was boring / hard / ok, because black people didn't have the same things / rights / buses like white people had. One evening in 1955 Mrs Parks went home by car / on foot / by bus, but there was no seat for her in the front / the back / the middle. Because she was tired / unfriendly / bored she sat down in the front of the bus. A white man wanted to sit down there but Rosa Parks didn't move / laughed at him / started crying. So the busdriver called the customer / assistant / police and Mrs Parks was celebrated / arrested / brought home by the police officers. Lots of black people were angry and decided to start a party / a protest / a programme. That was the beginning of the Civil Rights Movement.

→ Later you should have a look at your GL-exercises. You can find some more information about Rosa Parks.